Agreements:

Hellard v. Siegmeister, 44 Fla.L.Weekly D2584 (Fla. 3rd DCA 2019). Reconciliation or remarriage abrogates the executory provisions of a prior marital settlement agreement unless there is an explicit statement in the agreement that parties intended otherwise. However, executed provisions of a prior settlement agreement are not affected by reconciliation or remarriage absent a re-conveyance or a new written agreement to the contrary.

Romaine v. Romaine, 44 Fla.L.Weekly D2565 (Fla. 5th DCA 2019). Trial court erred by finding Wife's changes to marital settlement agreement did not change original agreement, and created an enforceable agreement. A marital settlement agreement is subject to the laws of contract. It is well-established that an acceptance must be a "mirror image" of the offer in all material respects. Otherwise it is a counter offer which rejects original offer.

Springer v. Springer, 277 So.3d 727 (Fla. 2nd DCA 2019). Co-parenting agreement between bio parent and non-parent unenforceable in Florida.

Ziegler v. Natera, 279 So.3d 1240 (Fla. 3rd DCA 2019). Trial court affirmed for setting aside prenuptial agreement when husband promised to provide financial disclosure, never did, and demanded his pregnant wife sign agreement day before wedding.

Famiglio v. Famiglio, 279 So.3d 736 (Fla. 2nd DCA 2019). The Wife filed for divorce in 2013 and dismissed it. Wife files for divorce again in 2016. Prenuptial agreement provided scheduled payments to Wife based on how long marriage was as defined when someone files for divorce. Court erred in using 2016 date to calculate payments instead of 2013 date. Agreement was unambiguous.

Alimony:

Schroll v. Smith, 44 Fla.L.Weekly D2734 (Fla. 1st DCA 2019). Award of alimony remanded for redetermination when income resulting from equitable distribution was not considered.

Weininger v. Weininger, 44 Fla.L.Weekly D2502 (Fla. 5th DCA 2019). No error denying alimony to Wife in long term marriage where she had significant income from trust, received significant assets in property division and was able-bodied, educated and capable of working, while Husband had to retire.

Cooper v. Cooper, 278 So.3d 765 (Fla. 2D DCA 2019). Award of alimony reversed when it appears it was based on husband's gross income as opposed to net.

Will v. Will, 277 So.3d 182 (Fla. 2D DCA 2019). Award of alimony remanded when judgment failed to address husband's living expenses.

Molina v. Perez, 276 So.3d 80 (Fla. 3d DCA 2019). Trial court erred awarding durational alimony instead of permanent alimony in 20-year marriage. Final Judgment finds vocational report indicated wife would be able to increase her income, but vocational report was not in record.

Shaw v. Shaw, 273 So.3d 1145 (Fla. 2d DCA 2019). Trial court erred in failing to award wife nominal permanent alimony in 28-year marriage where wife was a licensed veterinarian, but only worked part-time during marriage. Trial court should have awarded nominal permanent alimony to allow wife to have ability to increase alimony if she is unable to secure employment after using her best efforts.

King v. King, 273 So.3d 233 (Fla. 2nd DCA 2019). Trial court affirmed for denying alimony in short term marriage when wife failed to overcome presumption against award of alimony.

Zubrickly v. Zubrickly, 273 So.3d 217 (Fla. 4th DCA 2019). Party can use F.S. 61.14 to modify agreement (without modification action) before it is ratified by final judgment.

Gilliland v. Gilliland, 266 So.3d 866 (Fla. 5th DCA 2019). When dissolution judgment gives no guidance as to why permanent periodic alimony is inappropriate in a long-term marriage and why durational alimony is awarded, reversal is proper.

Frerking v. Stacy, 266 So.3d 273 (Fla. 5th DCA 2019). Trial court erred in awarding wife of 18-year marriage, 6 years of durational alimony as opposed to permanent without addressing presumption of permanent alimony in long term marriage. Court also erred imputing income to wife as if she was full time teacher when she did not possess a teacher's certificate and, therefore, was not qualified for such a position.

Lizzmore v. Lizzmore, 263 So.3d 268 (Fla. 1st DCA 2019). Trial Court reversed for awarding more than $1,000.00 a month in alimony when pleadings only requested $1,000.00 per month.

Alvarez-Reyes v. Fernandez-Gil, 271 So.3d 70 (Fla. 4th DCA 2019). Trial Court's imputation of income to husband and award of permanent alimony to wife affirmed.

Griffitts v. Griffitts, 263 So.3d 220 (Fla. 5th DCA 2019). Trial Court erred awarding three years of durational alimony, instead of permanent alimony, in long term marriage.

Fox v. Fox, 262 So.3d 789 (Fla. 4th DCA 2018). Fourth DCA recedes from Farghali, and holds motion for rehearing is not necessary to preserve prior error when Trial Court fails to make statutory required findings of fact. Certifies conflict.

Appeals:

Schroll v. Schroll, 44 Fla.L.Weekly D2734 (Fla. 1st DCA 2019). Award of alimony remanded for redetermination when income resulting from equitable distribution was not considered.

Knowlton v. Knowlton, 282 So.3d 154 (Fla.1st DCA 2019). Party did not preserve error that modifying court imposed support amount had lighter burden then support set by agreement. Acknowledges 2nd, 4th and 5th DCA no longer recognize separate burdens.

Johnston v. Johnston, 278 So.3d 921 (Fla. 5th DCA 2019). Judgment that awards entitlement, but not amount of attorney's fees, is not ripe for appeal.

Diogo v. Diogo, 278 So.3d 821 (Fla. 3D DCA 2019). Without transcript available, appellate court cannot meaningfully review findings of fact.

Burch v. Burch, 279 So.3d 265 (Fla. 1st DCA 2019). Appeal challenging award of entitlement to attorney's fees premature when amount is not determined.

McFall v. Welsh, 282 So.3d 888 (Fla. 5th DCA 2019). Trial court must rule on pending motion to stay before appellate court does. See Fla. R. App. P. 9.310(f).

Bell v. Bell, 275 So.3d 1282 (Fla. 1st DCA 2019). Order that does not fully determine the rights or obligations of a party regarding child custody or timesharing is not an appealable final order.

Skelly v. Skelly, 277 So.3d 1087 (Fla. 5th DCA 2019). Challenge to wife's standing to seek modification of support after child emancipated, not appropriate for writ of prohibition because failure to grant motion to dismiss does not create irreparable harm.

Engle v. Engle, 277 So.3d 697 (Fla. 2D DCA 2019). Appellate court ruled party does not need to file motion for rehearing, to preserve error, when court fails to make findings on statutory alimony factors. Certifies conflict with 1st, 3D & 5th DCA

Brown v. Brown, 275 So.3d 798 (Fla. 5th DCA 2019). Unless fundamental error on appeal is on face of judgment, appellate court cannot address alleged errors without transcripts of proceeding.

Wolf v. Wolf, 276 So.3d 48 (Fla. 2nd DCA 2019). Court did not have jurisdiction to hear appeal on attorneys' fees when entitlement was determined, but not amount. Former Husband cannot challenge equalizing payment without transcript or demonstrating reversible error.

Padgett v. Padgett, 268 So.3d 280 (Fla. 1st DCA 2019). Former Husband cannot challenge lower court's findings that he has additional income available to him in absence of transcript.

Browner v. Browner, 272 So.3d 530 (Fla. 1st DCA 2019). Appellate Court did not have jurisdiction to review non-final order that reserved jurisdiction over child support and equitable distribution, which then rendered that order as non-final, even if some issues are resolved in order.

Perez v. Dwyer, 271 So.3d 1116 (Fla. 3d DCA 2019). Can't appeal an Order suspending timesharing when no transcript provided.

Williams v. Jessica L. Kerr, P.A., 271 So.3d 82 (Fla. 3d DCA 2019). Appeal challenged award of charging lien despite allegations of collusion, but without a transcript Appellate Court can only address errors on face of judgment.

McGee v. McGee, 264 So.3d 1087 (Fla. 1st DCA 2019). Without transcript, Appellate Court can only address errors of law on face of judgment.

Troiike v. Troiike, 271 So.3d 1069 (Fla. 3rd DCA 2019). Appeal on order of supervised visitation dismissed as moot when subsequent order removed supervision.

Attorneys' Fees:

Navarro v. Veloz, 44 Fla.L.Weekly D2625 (Fla. 3rd DCA 2019). Trial court erred denying fees when they were not plead, but other party failed to object to the entry of the evidence on the issue, therefore the matter was tried by consent.

Kalis v. Kalis, 44 Fla.L.Weekly D2597 (Fla. 4th DCA 2019). Trial court erred in awarding party $3,766 in attorneys' fees for clerical work which attorney's secretary performed.

Knowlton v. Knowlton, 282 So.3d 154 (Fla. 1st DCA 2019). Party did not preserve error that modifying court imposed support amount had lighter burden than support set by agreement. Acknowledges 2nd, 4th and 5th DCA no longer recognize separate burdens.

Quigley v. Culbertson, 279 So.3d 1260 (Fla. 1st DCA 2019). Default fee provision in MSA did not prevent husband from obtaining fees per F.S. §61.16 in post judgment proceedings.

Fleming v. Fleming, 279 So.3d 763 (Fla. 1st DCA 2019). Trial court erred reducing attorneys' fees request from $360k to $200k based on expert's conclusory testimony that this matter should not cost more than $200k. A trial court may reduce fee request if it determines it is excessive, so long as court makes requisite findings to make that determination.

In Re: The Marriage of Kirby, 280 So.3d 98 (Fla. 4th DCA 2019). Order granting fees entered after death of party, but before substitution of party, was void.

Allen v. Juul, 278 So.3d 783 (Fla. 2nd DCA 2019). Order denying fees reversed when order contained no findings as to parties' need(s) and ability to pay.

Manko v. Manko, 273 So.3d 208 (Fla. 5th DCA 2019). Post-judgment order awarding fees reversed and remanded when court failed to make determination as to need and ability to pay.

Szurant v. Aaronson, 266 So.3d 1093 (Fla. 2D DCA 2019). Order on charging lien that attaches to “all of client’s money and/or personal property” is too broad. Charging lien should be limited to property recovered in divorce as a result of the attorney’s efforts.

Miron v. Richardson, 278 So.3d 738 (Fla. 1st DCA 2019). Order awarding fees without findings as to need and ability remanded.

Ingram v. Ingram, 277 So.3d 718 (Fla. 2D DCA 2019). It was an abuse of discretion to order husband to pay wife’s attorney’s fees when the judgment of dissolution placed both parties in similar financial positions, and there was no indication that the former husband otherwise had the ability to pay.

Medalie v. Sparks, 278 So.3d 151 (Fla. 4th DCA 2019). Father entitled to $70 credit in attorney’s fees when mother’s bill had 0.2 time entry involving another case.

Jooste v. Jooste, 273 So.3d 6 (Fla. 4th DCA 2019). Trial court abused discretion for denying temporary attorneys’ fees on sole basis that requesting party had spent twice as much on fees.

R.M.A. v. J.A.S., 269 So.3d 649 (Fla. 2nd DCA 2018). Without transcript, appellate court cannot determine if Court erred in fashioning repayment plan. However, Court committed legal error by failing to provide legal findings as to reasonableness; so matter remanded.

Dood v. Dood, 268 So.3d 254 (Fla. 2d DCA 2019). Order on fees reversed, even without transcript, when order failed to make required findings of fact.

Scire v. Hochman, 268 So.3d 167 (Fla. 4th DCA 2019). Court must make findings that the number of hours incurred are reasonable. If invoices submitted as evidence do not contain this summary, and if otherwise not articulated, court has no basis for awarding fees.

Gilliland v. Gilliland, 266 So.3d 866 (Fla. 5th DCA 2019). Error to award wife half of her fees without discussion of need or ability.

Laux v. Laux, 266 So.3d 217 (Fla. 4th DCA 2019). Provision in MSA that each party is responsible for their own attorney’s fees does not waive right to seek fees in future enforcement actions.

Joyner v. Worley, 264 So.3d 260 (Fla. 1st DCA 2019). Trial Court erred awarding fees without evidentiary hearing where reasonableness can be challenged.

Haskell v. Haskell, 260 So.3d 550 (Fla. 2nd DCA 2018). Appellate Court cannot determine issue of fees when entitlement granted but amount not determined.

Discovery:

McFall v. Welsh, 44 Fla.L.Weekly D2608 (Fla. 5th DCA 2019). Trial court erred allowing production of ex-spouses un-redacted tax return that showed her new spouse's income. Third parties have the right to privacy, and party seeking discovery did not establish relevancy.

Enforcement:

Neighbors v. Neighbors, 44 Fla.L.Weekly D2603 (Fla. 1st DCA 2019). Trial court erred requiring one party to pay the portion of a non-covered health expense when expense was out-of-network, and parties' agreement provided they would be fully responsible if they used an out-of-network provider.

Manzaro v. D'Alessandior, 44 Fla.L.Weekly D2597 (Fla. 4th DCA 2019). Order of direct contempt reversed when one party had repeated, uncontrollable interruptions and outburst during hearing, when defendant was not afforded opportunity to show cause why he should not be held in contempt, nor given the opportunity to present evidence of excusing or mitigating circumstances.

Perez v. Borga, 44 Fla.L.Weekly D2595 (Fla. 4th DCA 2019). Order sanctioning party to incarceration for failed in pay alimony reversed when no finding party had present ability to comply.

Robinson v. Robinson, 44 Fla.L.Weekly D2484 (Fla. 5th DCA 2019). Provision in contempt order that Husband must bring current all medical bills for which he received documentation was too impractical to enforce.

Orban v. Rorrer, 279 So.3d 234 (Fla. 3^D DCA 2019). Order granting contempt reversed when no finding of ability to comply, and no purge provision.

Hart v. Hart, 278 So.3d 193 (Fla. 3^D DCA 2019). Order of contempt reversed and remanded when notice failed to comply with the express requirements of rule 12.615(b).

Lapciuc v. Lapciuc, 275 So.3d 242 (Fla. 3^D DCA 2019). Trial court erred determining motion for enforcement without evidentiary hearing when an issue was whether incurring more debt was "commercially reasonable."

Accardi v. Accardi, 275 So.3d 10 (Fla. 4th DCA 2019). Issuing a writ of arrest based upon the former husband's future noncompliance to make his alimony payments is improper, as civil contempt orders may not provide for incarceration based upon future, anticipated noncompliance with a court's periodic support order.

Alonso v. De Zarraga, 275 So.3d 698 (Fla. 3^d DCA 2019). Trial court cannot impose a $12,500 fine with no purge as remedy for civil contempt. If Court imposed fine as an indirect criminal contempt, then criminal safeguards need to be complied with.

Bordonaro v. Bordonaro, 273 So.3d 225 (Fla. 1st DCA 2019). Trial court erred modifying support obligations at contempt hearing.

Farid v. Rabbath, 273 So.3d 221 (Fla. 1st DCA 2019). Trial court erred modifying property rights during post-judgment motion to enforce hearing.

Godwin v. Godwin, 273 So.3d 16 (Fla. 4th DCA 2019). Trial Court erred finding Husband in contempt for bringing his girlfriend to child's medical event when it was not barred by final judgment, and by "clarifying" girlfriend cannot attend appointments when no modification was requested.

Dowell v. Knoras, 271 So.3d 162 (Fla. 5th DCA 2019). Trial court erred by finding party in contempt for violating standard order not to relocate when party relocated prior to being served with order.

Du Perault v. Du Perault, 270 So.3d 424 (Fla. 4th DCA 2019). Error for court to include a defaulting fee provision in final judgment.

de Diego v. Barrios, 271 So.3d 1181 (Fla. 3rd DCA 2019). Trial court erred granting Former Wife equitable lien on Former Husband's homestead property to enforce equalizing payment. Did not meet standard to force sale of homestead property to enforce equalizing payment which requires egregious conduct (i.e. acquired homestead as instrument of fraud, or as a means to escape support obligation).

Pearson v. Pearson, 268 So.3d 863 (Fla. 2d DCA 2019). Trial court erred not categorizing portion of wife's FRS as marital asset. While she initiated work after date of filing, she had previously worked for state.

Akre-Deschamps v. Smith, 267 So.3d 492 (Fla. 2d DCA 2019). Trial court erred finding mother in contempt when daughter refused to return with her father. Judgment did not anticipate this occurrence and mother did not clearly violate any provision of Final Judgment.

Rector v. Rector, 264 So.3d 282 (Fla. 5th DCA 2019). Trial Court erred in failing to enforce provision in MSA that husband had to provide insurance with $50,000.00 death benefit. Provision was not tied to alimony so obligation to provide insurance did not end when alimony terminated.

Equitable Distribution:

Yon v. Yon, 44 Fla.L.Weekly D2678 (Fla. 1st DCA 2019). Trial court erred using date of separation instead of date of filing for cut-off date for marital assets and liabilities. Trial court erred finding money transferred from husband's non-marital trust account to joint account was non-marital, as the transfer to joint account created a presumption of a gift.

Tsacrios v. Tsacrios, 44 Fla.L.Weekly D2676 (Fla. 1st DCA 2019). Fact that a family would have been "better off" if husband had not attended school during marriage was not legal justification to categorize student debt he incurred during marriage as non-marital.

Johnson v. Johnson, 44 Fla.L.Weekly D2649 (Fla. 1st DCA 2019). Trial court erred including post-divorce accrued earnings in QDRO, 20 years after divorce, when agreement already stated specific amount to be transferred.

Weininger v. Weininger, 44 Fla.L.Weekly D2502 (Fla. 5th DCA 2019). No error refusing to charge account depleted by Husband on payment of federal income taxes, his attorneys' fees and furniture for his new house.

Erdman v. Erdman, 44 Fla.L.Weekly D2299 (Fla. 5th DCA 2019). Trial court reversed for classifying $80k deposit on jointly-titled marital residence as non-marital. All real property held by the parties as tenants by the entireties, whether acquired prior to or during marriage, shall be presumed to be a marital asset.

Hardy v. Hardy, 44 Fla.L.Weekly D2256 (Fla. 1st DCA 2019). Trial court acted within its discretion, to protect wife's rights to meaningful relief, by rejecting magistrates report and awarding all marital assets to wife when alcoholic husband hasn't supported family in a year and burned down marital residence.

Hubbard v. Berth, 279 So.3d 246 (Fla. 5th DCA 2019). Trial court erred including length of parties' two marriages (they had previously been divorced, then remarried to each other again) in dividing pension when first MSA addressed wife's entitlement to her share of pension during first marriage.

Martin v. Martin, 276 So.3d 393 (Fla. 1st DCA 2019). Trial court affirmed in finding portion of husband's pension that was attributed to a period of service prior to parties' marriage was martial, because those years of service had no retirement value until they were "purchased" with martial funds during the marriage to apply toward appellant's pension. Case of first impression.

Griffin v. Griffin, 273 So.3d 282 (Fla. 1st DCA 2019). Trial court erred distributing $72,000 of workers comp proceeds to husband when amount was depleted to $6,400 at time of hearing with no findings of waste.

Goley v. Goley, 272 So.3d 800 (Fla. 1st DCA 2019). Trial court erred finding parties had an equitable interest in property owned by Wife's parents. Error was harmless as Court gave Wife credit for unequal interest which did not affect alimony or attorneys' fees.

Bowen v. Volz, 271 So.3d 1162 (Fla. 1st DCA 2019). Trial Court erred dividing parties' closed business 50/50, despite dearth of evidence of business's value.

Dorsey v. Dorsey, 266 So.3d 1282 (Fla. 1st DCA 2019). Equitable distribution scheme affirmed. Parties cannot seek piecemeal review of court's equitable distribution scheme without asserting over all distribution was not equal.

Welton v. Welton, 267 So.3d 6 (Fla. 4th DCA 2019). Trial court erred charging retirement account (including taxes & early without penalty) depleted during pendency to husband without findings of waste. Court also erred to adjudicate issues on personal property when they were presented.

Escalona Socarras v. Bazan Vassallo, 273 So.3d 131 (Fla. 3rd DCA 2019). Borrowing from line of credit collateralized by non-marital property does not convert property to marital asset.

Matthews v. Matthews, 264 So.3d 355 (Fla. 2nd DCA 2019). Generally, when a Husband and a Wife are jointly responsible for the mortgage on real property and one spouse pays entire amount of mortgage during pendency of case, the payor spouse is entitled to credit for one-half of the total payments made.

Sarazin v. Sarazin, 263 So.3d 273 (Fla. 1st DCA 2019). Trial Court affirmed for finding $80,000.00 husband sent his parents was not marital waste.

Rawson v. Rawson, 264 So.3d 325 (Fla. 1st DCA 2019). Award of lump sum alimony made in the form of giving wife a portion of military retirement distributed to husband in equitable distribution. Affirmed due to facts of case.

Moody v. Newton, 264 So.3d 292 (Fla. 5th DCA 2019). It was error for court to classify engagement and wedding ring as marital property.

Bolden v. Bolden, 263 So.3d 216 (Fla. 1st DCA 2019). Trial Court made several mathematical errors dividing marital portion of Husband's retirement.

Vinson v. Vinson, 282 So.3d 122 (Fla. 1st DCA 2019). Non-economic compensatory damages for pain, suffering disability, and loss of ability to lead a normal life arising from a Worker's Comp case is non-marital. Error to convert equalizing payment to alimony if not paid.

Income:

Mikhail v. Mikhail, 279 So.3d 1269 (Fla. 2nd DCA 2019). Trial court erred by not deducting certain business expenses in determining wife's income.

Horowitz v. Horowitz, 273 So.3d 263 (Fla. 2nd DCA 2018). Trial court erred in imputing income to wife immediately when husband's vocational expert said it would take wife 6 months of therapy before she could work full-time. Fact that wife did not seek therapy during pendency of divorce cannot be used against her if she was not ordered to attend therapy.

Sarazin v. Sarazin, 263 So.3d 273 (Fla. 1st DCA 2019). Trial Court erred imputing gift income to Wife when there was no evidence gifts would continue.

Gay v. Gay, 262 So.3d 259 (Fla. 1st DCA 2018). Trial Court erred imputing income to party without first determining if reduction in income was voluntary.

Injunctions:

Hegedus v. Willemin, 44 Fla.L.Weekly D2712 (Fla. 5th DCA 2019). Two instances, one where Respondent entered parking lot at public event and did not cause disruption, and one where respondent followed petitioner in car with erratic driving and words exchanged, were legally insufficient to support entry of stalking injunction.

Khan v. Deutschman, 282 So.3d 965 (Fla. 1st DCA 2019). Dating injunction affirmed after Respondent continued to pursue ex-girlfriend after she made it clear relationship was off, blocked him from her cell phone and social media, and had attorney send cease and desist letter.

Schultz v. Moore, 282 So.3d 152 (Fla. 5th DCA 2019). Communications sent after breakup that did not threaten personal injury or violence was insufficient to form basis for injunction against dating violence.

Auguste v. Aguado, 282 So.3d 937 (Fla. 3rd DCA 2019). Stalking injunction affirmed when ex-nanny impersonated family in order to cancel their vacation, and sent a number of texts with profanity and emails discussing death.

Reid v. Saunders, 282 So.3d 151 (Fla.1st DCA 2019). Stalking injunction between husband's wife and husband's baby momma reversed. Although Respondent's communication were unpleasant and uncivil, Respondent had a legitimate purpose, and her actions did not rise to severe emotional distress.

Stone v. Germann, 44 Fla.L.Weekly D2192 (Fla. 3D DCA 2019). If Respondent is properly served and fails to appear at initial domestic violence hearing, any subsequent motions may be served by mail. F.S.741.30(8)(a)(3).

Curl v. Roberts, 279 So.3d 765 (Fla. 1st DCA 2019). Trial court abused discretion entering injunction protecting children from maternal grandmother, based on allegations grandmother beat children's mother when children's mother was a child. Not legally sufficient to demonstrate imminent fear of being a victim of domestic violence.

Logue v. Book, 44 Fla.L.Weekly D2083 (Fla. 4th DCA 2019). Threats made through social media do not qualify for an injunction because they are not directly transmitted.

Di Stefano v. Long, 279 So.3d 758 (Fla. 2D DCA 2019). Injunction against dating violence reversed. Regardless of whether the petitioner has been a victim of dating violence in the past, the petitioner must show reasonable cause to believe they are in imminent danger of being a victim of dating violence in the future. Calling names and yelling obscenities does not give rise to reasonable cause to believe there is an imminent threat to becoming a victim of dating violence.

Shannon v. Smith, 278 So.3d 173 (Fla. 1st DCA 2019). Aggressive behavior from respondent to non-party has no bearing on whether petitioner is entitled to an injunction against stalking.

Traficante v. Lambert, 275 So.3d 794 (Fla. 3D DCA 2019). Trial court affirmed for granting petition for injunction against repeat violence.

Caterino v. Torelo, 276 So.3d 88 (Fla. 2D DCA 2019). Stalking injunction reversed. Injunction is not meant to “keep the peace” between neighbors who cannot get along.

Taylor v. Price, 273 So.3d 24 (Fla. 4th DCA 2019). Trial court cannot reject petitioner’s testimony when no evidence to rebut it, and no finding made that petitioner was not credible.

Summers v. Thompson, 271 So.3d 1232 (Fla. 1st DCA 2019). Respondent challenged dating injunction by claiming Petitioner had no standing because they met on Craig’s list and were casually having sex. This argument failed because under the language of the statute, a dating relationship exists when the parties have or had a continuing and significant relationship of a romantic or intimate nature. However, Respondent successfully argued that leaving unpleasant voice messages, contacting petitioner on social media, and showing up one time at her residence unannounced was insufficient to support injunction against dating violence.

Klenk v. Ramson, 270 So.3d 1272 (Fla. 1st DCA 2019). Allegations that Respondent frequently asked Petitioner sexually oriented questions, asked Petitioner to run errands after work, and looked through Petitioner’s cell phone one time was insufficient to support injunction for protection against stalking.

Stone v. McMillian, 270 So.3d 510 (Fla. 1st DCA 2019). Trial court abused discretion by entering stalking injunction on evidence that was legally insufficient. Facts that Respondent walked dog past Petitioner’s residence often, put his dog waste in her curb trashcan on one occasion, and stepped on Petitioner’s driveway to avoid being hit by a bus, does not constitute a course of malicious conduct that would give a person severe emotional distress.

Hossey v. Lara, 272 So.3d 498 (Fla. 3d DCA 2019). Injunction against sexual violence of 9-year-old child reversed for insufficient evidence because mother was pro se and failed to introduce substantial evidence. Court makes plea for more resources to help petitioners stating “the issues could hardly be more significant, the allegations, proceedings, and results substantially affect the long-term physical and emotional health of the parties and their families.”

Trice v. Trice, 267 So.3d 496 (Fla. 2d DCA 2019). Trial Court erred denying a motion to dissolve a Domestic Violence injunction based on the circumstances underlying injunction changing so injunction serves no valid purpose when:

- Respondent acquitted of criminal charges arising from events that supported injunction.
- Parties’ marriage has been dissolved.
- Respondent moved to another State.
- Petitioner living in the United States when Respondent was living in Japan.

- Respondent no longer in military.
- Parties had not seen each other in six years.
- Respondent made no attempt to contact Petitioner in six years.

Campanhac v. Lauramore, 264 So.3d 412 (Fla. 5th DCA 2019). Stalking injunction reversed because each incident of stalking was not supported by competent, substantial evidence.

McCaffrey v. Ashley, 265 So.3d 688 (Fla. 5th DCA 2019). Court cannot dismiss injunction that seems legally sufficient without explanation.

Hutsell v. Hutsell, 263 So.3d 266 (Fla. 1st DCA 2019). Fact that former husband may be tracking former wife's location and texted her location was insufficient to support injunction against domestic violence.

Dailey v. Roth, 262 So.3d 268 (Fla. 1st DCA 2019). A permanent injunction for protection against repeat violence cannot be used simply to compel civility and common decency; however, it would be helpful if the Circuit Court had the power to enter an Order requiring adults to act like grown-ups.

Counsil v. Anderson, 259 So.3d 315 (Fla. 1st 2018). Order extending DV injunction ninety (90) days was vacated even after the injunction expired, as there was no factual basis to enter it in the first place.

Life Insurance:

Kvinta v. Kvinta, 277 So.3d 1070 (Fla. 5th DCA 2019). Trial court erred requiring party to name other as beneficiary on life insurance policy when no alimony was awarded.

Grasso v. Grasso, 267 So.3d 1050 (Fla. 1st DCA 2019). Trial Court erred in requiring life insurance to protect child support without findings of necessity and affordability.

Modification:

Suarez v. Suarez, 44 Fla.L.Weekly D2745 (Fla. 4th DCA 2019). Trial court affirmed for terminating alimony when former wife had a substantial decrease in income, but remanded back to trial court to make necessary findings of fact. Court reversed for calculating child support based on "gross-up" model when Father was not exercising 20% of overnights.

Myers v. Lane, 44 Fla.L.Weekly D2600 (Fla. 4th DCA 2019). Failure to exercise court-ordered timesharing entitled other party to modification of child support pursuant to 61.30(11)(c).

Thomas v. Joseph, 280 So.3d 1107 (Fla. 1st DCA 2019). Order modifying timesharing over child because Mother was not actually the biological mother, was error. Original final judgment gave the Mother parenting responsibility, regardless of whether she was biological mother or not. Res judicata applies to judgment. To modify, party must still show substantial change of circumstances.

McDaniels v. McDaniels, 278 So.3d 176 (Fla. 1st DCA 2019). Trial court affirmed for denying modification of alimony when MSA provides alimony is non-modifiable unless former husband becomes permanently disabled by a physician or social security administration, as former husband offered no evidence that he is disabled. Court could not order purge on contempt without finding party had present ability.

Dunn v. Dunn, 277 So.3d 1081 (Fla. 5th DCA 2019). Trial court abused discretion by modifying alimony downward by 85%. Trial court erred viewing case entirely from perspective of current needs and effectively punished the former wife for her decision to live a more modest lifestyle than enjoyed during marriage or currently by former husband.

Hollis v. Hollis, 276 So.3d 77 (Fla. 2^d DCA 2019). A 47 mile move in residence by one parent, alone, is not a substantial change of circumstances warranting a modification.

Holder v. Lopez, 274 So.3d 518 (Fla. 1st DCA 2019). Error to impute income without evidence to 65-year-old truck driver who retired with multiple health ailments. Retirement is a changed circumstance warranting reconsideration of alimony.

Schot v. Schot, 273 So.3d 48 (Fla. 4th DCA 2019). Modification granting equal timesharing and ultimate medical decision making to dad affirmed when mother failed to provide child's medical diagnosis to father, gave father improper medical directions to care for child, would overfeed the child and give the child laxatives so child would have explosive diarrhea with dad and parties could not agree on school. However, court reversed on modifications not requested in the pleadings.

Johansson v. Johansson, 270 So.3d 426 (Fla. 4th DCA 2019). Trial court abused discretion by denying petition to modify support without findings of income or imputing income to voluntarily-underemployed party.

Dipasquale v. Dipasquale, 275 So.3d 686 (Fla. 2nd DCA 2019). When divorce resolved by agreement, effective date of agreement establishes date trial court should look back to for determination of change of circumstances in modification action.

Paulette v. Rosella, 267 So.3d 571 (Fla. 5th DCA 2019). Trial Court erred denying modification. MSA provided no support obligation on mother because she was unemployed. Court denied modification based on erroneous determination that mom getting job was "contemplated." An increase in one's ability to pay in and of itself is sufficient to warrant an increase in child support.

Tisdale v. Tisdale, 264 So.3d 1105 (Fla. 1st DCA 2019). Trial Court erred granting downward modification of support when Husband's income was totally commission-based, and ebbed and flowed. Accordingly, change in circumstances was foreseeable.

Inman v. Inman, 260 So.3d 555 (Fla. 2nd DCA 2018). Trial Court properly denied Husband's request to terminate alimony when ex-wife remarried, when parties' MSA provided alimony would be paid for rest of Former Wife's life.

Name Change:

Marini v. Kellett, 279 So.3d 248 (Fla. 5th DCA 2019). Changing minor child's surname for the purpose of establishing a good father-son bond, and to confirm to certain traditions, was legally insufficient basis to grant relief.

Bowman v. Hutto, 269 So.3d 596 (Fla. 1st DCA 2019). Trial Court abused discretion changing 2-year-old child's name as part of paternity judgment. Father testified child should have hyphenated name to identify with both parents. Mom agreed it would stigmatize child for being born out of wedlock. Law requires a name only where the record affirmatively shows it is required for the welfare of the child.

Parenting:

T.D. v. K.F., 44 Fla.L.Weekly D2719 (Fla. 2nd DCA 2019). It is reversible error for Court to restrict parent's right to timesharing without identifying concrete steps in order/judgment parent must take to reestablish timesharing.

Cappola v. Cappola, 280 So.3d 102 (Fla. 4th DCA 2019). Trial court discretion by enforcing private agreement concerning parenting without considering child's best interest. The court's comment that it was "her job to uphold contracts and uphold the law" failed to uphold law because court is required to independently determine if agreements made between the parties are in their child's best interests.

Marini v. Kellett, 279 So.3d 248 (Fla. 5th DCA 2019). It is an abuse of discretion for timesharing schedule to include 2 to 3 dozen planned trips (via airline flights) for minor child. Such frequent flights with the predictable occasional delays are not in the child's best interest.

Hollonbeck v. Hollonbeck, 279 So.3d 231 (Fla. 1st DCA 2019). Judgment granting shared parental responsibility, but giving husband ultimate decision making, was reversed when court did not find shared parental responsibility would be detrimental to child.

Ducali v. Ducali, 274 So.3d 558 (Fla. 3rd DCA 2019). Trial court erred granting parent sole decision making over medical and educational when matter was not plead or tried by consent.

Pierre v. Bueven, 276 So.3d 917 (Fla. 3rd DCA 2019). Court is not required to make findings of facts on each custody factor so long as parenting plan is found to be in child's best interest. However, if supervised visitation is imposed, court must detail steps for parent to resume normal visitation.

Tritschler v. Tritschler, 273 So.3d 1161 (Fla. 2d DCA 2019). Parenting plan that contains findings of fact that are not supported by the record must be reversed.

Walker v. Walker, 274 So.3d 1156 (Fla. 2d DCA 2019). Trial court erred not granting father significant timesharing simply because he did not have physical space to have the children without discussion of F.S. 61.13 factors.

E.V. v. D.M.V.H., 273 So.3d 1132 (Fla. 2d DCA 2018). Parenting plan that did not describe in adequate detail the methods and technologies that parents will use to communicate with the child is not complete compliance with F.S. Section 61.13(2)(b), and requires reversal.

McLendon v. D'Amico, 44 Fla.L.Weekly D894 (Fla. 1st DCA 2019). Trial Court affirmed for modifying judgment and removing requirement father have supervised visitation based on court's findings. Father was sober for three years and alcoholism was in remission despite evidence to the contrary.

Andre v. Abreu, 272 So.3d 467 (Fla. 3d DCA 2019). Impermissible for court to modify timesharing as sanction for contempt when there was no modification pending alleging it was in the child's best interest.

Lightsey v. Davis, 267 So.3d 12 (Fla. 4th DCA 2019). No transcript but trial court erred on face of judgment by ordering unsupervised timesharing without steps on how to obtain it back and delegating the decision of what timesharing a parent would have to the other parent.

Cancino v. Cancino, 273 So.3d 122 (Fla. 3rd DCA 2019). Provision in agreement that "both parties shall share parental responsibility for the children consistent with Florida Statute" was not clear and definite to support a holding of contempt that Wife took child to doctor without Husband knowing about it, obtaining prescription eye glasses for child without Husband's consent and signing a consent for child to participate in screening/assessment at school.

Clarke v. Stofft, 263 So.3d 84 (Fla. 4th DCA 2019). Error to award ultimate decision-making authority, which failed to identify specific areas over which party had ultimate decision-making authority.

Partition:

Vergne v. Gridewell, 44 Fla.L.Weekly D2748 (Fla. 4th DCA 2019). Award of 100% of attorneys' fees to one party in partition action, when both parties owned 50% of property, reversed when trial court provided no explanation why it awarded 100% to one party.

Procedure:

Dlin v. Dlin, 44 Fla.L.Weekly D2801 (Fla. 3rd DCA 2019). Venue is proper in single county where intact marriage was last evidenced by a continuing union of partners who intended to remain married.

Forest v. Estate of Kohl, 44 Fla.L.Weekly D2790 (Fla. 4th DCA 2019). Trial court reversed for misinterpreting release in parties' settlement agreement.

In Re: Amendments to the Florida Rules for Qualified and Court Appointed Parenting Coordinators, 44 Fla.L.Weekly S267 (Fla. 2019). Changes title of 15.350 to "Confidentiality of Disciplinary Proceedings."

In Re: Amendments to the Florida Rules for Qualified and Court Appointed Parenting Coordinators, 44 Fla.L.Weekly S234 (Fla. 2019). Amended rule for court-appointed parenting coordinators.

Hess v. Hess, 44 Fla.L.Weekly D2518 (Fla. 2nd DCA 2019). Trial court erred denying Former Wife hearing on newly-discovered evidence, when former husband failed to disclose his VA disability benefit income.

Reno v. Reno, 282 So.3d 163 (Fla. 1st DCA 2019). Order requiring compulsory mental health examination quashed when mental health was not "at issue," and no evidence demonstrating alleged mental illness places child at risk of abuse, abandonment or neglect.

Foreman v James, 44 Fla.L.Weekly D2473 (Fla. 3rd DCA 2019). Trial court ordering at a status conference the Husband and daughter should attend a 4-day retreat to address parental alienation was not a modification to a timesharing agreement that required due process safeguards.

Becker v. Becker, 279 So.3d 813 (Fla. 3rd DCA 2019). The fact that a party's attorney previously represented the judge was legally sufficient to support disqualification.

Lattanzio v. Hoffman, 278 So.3d 751 (Fla. 3rd DCA 2019). Order striking pleadings and final judgment reversed when notice of hearing was improperly sent to party's previous attorney who had withdrawn.

Ripley v. Ripley, 278 So.3d 190 (Fla. 5th DCA 2019). Party's Motion to Disqualify untimely when filed 5 months after incident where Judge reprimanded party's attorney.

Singer v. Singer, 278 So.3d 79 (Fla. 4th DCA 2019). Trial court erred entering order transferring case when there was no motion filed that requested relief, nor was husband on notice venue may change.

Goff v. Goff, 276 So.3d 83 (Fla. 2nd DCA 2019). Trial court applied wrong legal standard by disqualifying attorney in post dissolution action who was listed as a witness during the main divorce action.

Thomas v. Cromer, 276 So.3d 69 (Fla. 3rd DCA 2019). Trial court violated father's due process rights by granting motion for rehearing which only challenged child support and entered amended final judgment restricting father's timesharing without affording father opportunity to be heard.

Trainor v. Mendez Cisneros, 276 So.3d 371 (Fla. 3d DCA 2019). Trial court did not err in signing a party's proposed order when both parties submitted proposals of orders. Court made changes to order it signed.

Saboff v. Saboff, 275 So.3d 712 (Fla. 5th DCA 2019). Trial court affirmed for granting new trial after acknowledging there was no justification why the court had not issued final judgment in 15 months. Remanded for new judge to hear case as quickly as possible.

Rokosz v. Haccoun, 274 So.3d 498 (Fla. 3d DCA 2019). Trial court erred by treating parties' motion to vacate lis pendens as a motion for reconsideration, as it denied moving party the right to an evidentiary hearing.

Godin v. Owens, 275 So.3d 700 (Fla. 5th DCA 2019). Generally, a trial court must grant a legally-sufficient motion to disqualify immediately, and may not take any further action in the matter. The trial court maintains ability to perform ministerial duty of preparing order to reflect oral pronouncements before motion to disqualify is filed. In this case, trial court made oral pronouncements on all issues but child support. Former wife then moved to disqualify court. Court erred determining child support after motion to disqualify was filed.

Hall v. Hall, 277 So.3d 639 (Fla. 5th DCA 2019). Trial court erred granting non-party's motion for protection. Husband is entitled to reasonable discovery from non-party so he may seek to determine and offer evidence at trial of the wife's ongoing ownership interest in the third party.

Pena v. Rodriguez, 273 So.3d 237 (Fla. 3rd DCA 2019). Trial court denied husband due process by relying solely on representations of counsel in support of determination of parental responsibility, timesharing and child support.

Gil De Lamadrid v. De Jesus Rivera, 272 So.3d 845 (Fla. 5th DCA 2019). Third-party cannot intervene into divorce post-judgment.

Manko v. Manko, 273 So.3d 208 (Fla. 5th DCA 2019). Trial court erred summarily denying party's 1.530 motion based on the fact party cannot obtain life insurance due to medical condition.

In Re: Amendments to the Florida Evidence Code, 278 So.3d 551 (Fla. 2019). In family law cases, Court can take judicial notice of any court record of the US or any state when imminent danger has been alleged and it is impractical to give notice to the parties.

Levy v. Levy, 268 So.3d 811 (Fla. 4th DCA 2019). Husband lacking capacity is not a defense when spouse seeks alimony unconnected with dissolution.

Pelphrey-Weigand v. Weigand, 44 Fla.L.Weekly D973 (Fla. 2d DCA 2019). Error for court to grant fees, when fees for some issue previously denied under different theory due to res judicata.

Moore v. Holton, 272 So.3d 520 (Fla. 2d DCA 2019). IWO must delegate what portion of support payment is for arrears.

Johnson v. Johnson, 268 So.3d 203 (Fla. 5th DCA 2019). Trial Court erred disregarding parties' stipulation on number of overnights husband would receive timesharing with minor child.

Corrigan v. Vargas, 277 So.3d 642 (Fla. 5th DCA 2019). Party cannot seek relief from order/judgment for fraud if they have unclean hands, i.e. participate in fraud.

Bowe-Lewis v. Lewis, 267 So.3d 1039 (Fla. 4th DCA 2019). Trial Court erred denying 12.540 motion that alleged a colorable entitlement to relief without an evidentiary hearing.

Carlton v. Zanzazi, 266 So.3d 243 (Fla. 2d DCA 2019). Fact that case was refiled under case number where party previously filed Notice of Voluntary dismissal did not render Final Judgment based on subsequently filed petition void.

Rodriguez v. Rodriguez, 264 So.3d 409 (Fla. 5th DCA 2019). Alimony IWO should designate when alimony ends so employer knows when to stop deducting.

Knapp v. Knapp, 266 So.3d 224 (Fla. 1st DCA 2019). Venue appropriate when wife never alleged current county was not the last county where the intact marriage was last evidenced by a continuing union of parties who intended to remain married indefinitely, if not permanently.

Phillips v. Phillips, 264 So.3d 1129 (Fla. 2d DCA 2019). Order quashing discovery against non-parties reversed by Certiorari because they were relevant to establish husband's income.

Pagliaro v. Pagliaro, 264 So.3d 196 (Fla. 4th DCA 2019). Trial Court erred denying Wife opportunity to present evidence to set aside mediation agreement because it was not in the child's best interest.

Hall v. Hall, 277 So.3d 639 (Fla. 5th DCA 2019). Order denying discovery request to non-party in which wife had an ownership interest in was reversed, husband has legitimate purpose to value wife's interest and not just accept "book value."

Delgado v. Miller, 264 So.3d 1040 (Fla. 3rd DCA 2019). Trial Court erred ordering psychological exam without following 12.360 procedure. While husband argues wife agreed and therefore waived her right to object, record reveals wife did not agree to terms of order/exam.

Sweet v. Tucker, 260 So.3d 1191 (Fla. 1st DCA 2019). Trial Court erred entering order denying motion to dissolve injunction after entering on order recusing himself. Remanded for new hearing.

Oldham v. Greene, 263 So.3d 807 (Fla. 1st DCA 2018). Requiring compulsory psychological evaluation under Fla. Fam. L.R.P.12.360 reversed when mental health not at issue. No findings of good cause.

Llanos v. Gomez de Cordova, 263 So.3d 137 (Fla. 3rd DCA 2018). Trial Court's final judgment entered while interlocutory appeal was pending was void. Fla. R. App. Pro. 9.130 (f).

Relocation:

Miller v. Miller, 277 So.3d 725 (Fla. 1st DCA 2019). Order allowing temporary relocation reversed and remanded for determination supported by competent, substantial evidence.

Hull v. Hull, 273 So.3d 1135 (Fla. 5th DCA 2019). Trial court does not have authority to modify timesharing of parent who relocates without children. Plain language of statute requires parent to prevail at relocation in order to modify timesharing (even if children are not relocating).

Couperthwaite v. Couperthwaite, 272 So.3d 795 (Fla. 1st DCA 2019). Order denying relocation affirmed. No showing of abuse of discretion or misapplication of the law.

Pearce v. Boudreaux, 265 So.3d 712 (Fla. 3^d DCA 2019). Trial court had to have an evidentiary hearing on petition to relocate when response was timely filed but lacked verification and recitation of facts.

Allende v. Veloz, 273 So.3d 142 (Fla. 3^d DCA 2019). Order granting relocation reversed when Court placed burden on non-relocating parent to demonstrate why it wasn't in child's best interest.

Parris v. Butler, 264 So.3d 1089 (Fla. 2nd DCA 2019). Trial Court reversed for not applying relocation factors in determining if children should be returned from foreign country.

Support:

Jackson v. Jackson, 278 So.3d 149 (Fla. 1st DCA 2019). Final judgment that contained contradictions as to whether one party was voluntarily underemployed remanded for clarification.

Carmack v. Carmack, 277 So.3d 185 (Fla. 2^d DCA 2019). A trial court's failure to include findings of fact regarding the parties' incomes when determining child support is error.

Rosenblum v. Rosenblum, 276 So.3d 919 (Fla. 1st DCA 2019). Child support guidelines must be attached to support order.

Smith v. Smith, 273 So.3d 1168 (Fla. 1st DCA 2019). Modifications are generally retroactive to the date petition for modification is filed. But F.S. section

61.30(11)(c) provides an exception allowing retroactivity “to the date the noncustodial parent first failed to regularly exercise the court-ordered or agreed timesharing schedule.”

Walker v. Walker, 274 So.3d 1156 (Fla. 2d DCA 2019). Trial court erred by not extending child support to high school graduation when there was a reasonable expectation of child graduating by 19th birthday.

Stout v. Stout, 270 So.3d 429 (Fla. 4th DCA 2019). When child support is allocated between children, obligor entitled to retroactive relief to the date of the qualifying event (i.e. emancipation of that child).

Mattison v. Mattison, 266 So.3d 258 (Fla. 5th DCA 2019). Trial court erred basing support on husband’s gross receipts without deducting business expenses and erred basing retroactive support on husband’s previous income when he was involuntarily unemployed for two months during that period.

Rawson v. Rawson, 264 So.3d 325 (Fla. 1st DCA 2019). Trial Court erred not awarding support and retroactive support.

J.A.D. v. K.M.A., 264 So.3d 1080 (Fla. 2nd DCA 2019). Support order without proper findings reversed.

Lennon v. Lennon, 264 So.3d 1084 (Fla. 2nd DCA 2019). Corrects opinion at 43 Fla.L.Weekly D237. Support Order is remanded for proper findings. Court should award retro support, but give credits to father for support actually paid.

Pierce v. Pierce, 263 So.3d 253 (Fla. 1st DCA 2019). Order on child support reversed when it failed to include appropriate findings.

Pansky v. Barry S. Franklin & Associates, P.A., 264 So.3d 961 (Fla. 4th DCA 2019). Law firm not entitled to be transferred rights, title and/or interest of client’s ownership interest in a non-single member LLC when granting a charging order.

Julia v. Julia, 263 So.3d 795 (Fla. 4th DCA 2019). Trial Court failed to take mortgage payments in consideration in determining retroactive support.

Temporary Relief:

Meldrum v. Bergamo-Meldrum, 281 So.3d 504 (Fla. 4th DCA 2019). Trial court erred issuing temporary relief order based on Husband’s gross income. Accordingly, appellate Court cannot determine if award exhausts husband’s income. Remanded for further proceedings.

UCCJEA:

Martinez v. Lebron, 44 Fla.L.Weekly D2765 (Fla. 5th DCA 2019). Trial court affirmed for finding Florida was child’s home state despite it being contested. No procedural irregularities when New York declined jurisdiction. Court does not need to find substantial change of circumstance in modifying temporary parenting order.

Bock v. Vilma, 279 So.3d 1246 (Fla. 3D DCA 2019). Former Wife moving to Baltimore with minor child did not cause Florida, which issued final judgment, to lose jurisdiction. The UCCJEA does not operate to divest a court of continuing jurisdiction unless virtually all contacts have been lost with forum state.

Awad v. Noufal, 280 So.3d 522 (Fla. 2D DCA 2019). Trial court was correct determining Florida was child's home state but erred by not contacting Massachusetts court upon learning a temporary parenting order had been entered in accordance with FS.61.514.
